

CPSP-K EXAMINATION STRUCTURE

	Assessment Format	Question Format	Response format	Total Marks
PART I
Section A (Knowledge & Comprehension)	Constructed Response.. Setter can cluster non-core topics in a module to allow for wide syllabus coverage in the question.	One Question (1) with not more than five (5) parts a, b, c, d	Short answers	20
Section B (Application & Analysis)	Constructed Response examiners encouraged to set questions that give practical scenarios for candidates to apply and analyse	Two (2) Questions Each question carries a total of 20 marks)	Short answers	40
Section C (Synthesis & Evaluation)	Short Case Study: Case based questions	Four (4) Questions to guide students in analyzing the case. Each question carries a total of 10 marks)	Short answers/s hort essays	40
PART II
Section A Knowledge & Comprehension	Constructed Response Setter can cluster non-core topics in a module to allow for wide syllabus coverage in the question.	One Question (1) With not more than five (5) parts.. a,b,c,d	Short answers	20
Section B Application & Analysis	Constructed Response. Short essay questions testing core concepts in the module/subject	Two (2) Questions Each question carries a total of 10 marks)	Short Answers	20
Section C Synthesis & Evaluation	Mini Case study: Case Study Questions	Six (6) Questions Each question carries a total of 10 marks Questions to	Short answers/ short	60

CPSP-K EXAMINATION STRUCTURE

		guide students in analyzing the case.	essay answers
PART III
Case study (Knowledge & Comprehension-10 marks) (Application & Analysis-30 marks) (Synthesis & Evaluation-60 marks)	Constructed Response Setters encouraged to give practical scenarios of Case study for candidates to analyse. Setter to cluster the topics in a module to allow for wide syllabus coverage.	Four (4) Questions Each question broken into not more than three (3) parts..a,b,c and each question to carry a total of 25 marks. Questions to guide students in analyzing the case.	Short essays	100